Governor John Burns appointed him to the directorship in 1963 and then in 1969 appointed him judge of Hawaii’s Circuit Court One.

as much water as possible through the nozzle but, in that case, you’re probably better off without